

Getting Started

Define overall goals:

- Impact the job market in Oregon and the nation by educating students for jobs for software engineering jobs
- Provide quality education
- Start as soon as possible and evolve through the process, similar to a start-up company
- Instill core values of EECS by providing relevant, experiential learning

Delegate tasks:

- Coordinator of faculty who will develop courses
- Committee to share best practices in course development